ADVENTUROUS CLIMBING ON EVERY LEVEL!

The Outdoorpark is part of the sport complex Hoornse Vaart and is one of the most challenging altitude tracks of the Netherlands.

The Outdoorpark has got 4 different climbing levels with an increasing degree of difficulty

- level 1 on 1 meter height for beginners.
- level 2 on 6 meters height for advanced participants.
- level 3 on 11 meters height for daredevils.
- level 4 on 16 meters height for real heroes.

The higher you get the more difficult the track becomes. The climbing instructor will tell you if you are ready to climb on a higher level.

Furthermore

- Two flying foxes, 120 meters long on a height of 11 and 16 meters. *
- A climbing wall, 16 meters high with 2 climbing routes. *
- A free fall from a height of 16 meters. *
- * These three parts cannot be used all day long but they will be opened at certain moments during the day.

Advised clothing

Durable clothes and well fastened shoes with a solid sole. Empty your trouser pockets, remove your jewellery and tie up long hair carefully.

Safety

We work with a constant safety system to ensure maximum safety conditions. So you are always secured and you cannot come loose of the safety rope along the way.

Minimum height and age depending on climbing level

- Climbing level 1 minimal height 125 cm
- Climbing level 2 minimal height 130 cm
- Climbing level 3 + 4 minimal height 140 cm

If children are smaller than indicated they will not be able to carry the lifeline correctly when climbing the track. Therefore they cannot do the climbing route properly. For security reasons, height is determined. There will be no deviation from this requirement. During opening hours the park is free accessible to the public who wants to take a look.

If you want to climb, here are the entrance fees.

All open parts:	Adults	€ 17,50
	Youth up to 17 years	€ 15,00
The rope track on 1 and 6 meters:	Adults	€ 10,00 **
	Youth up to 17 years	€ 8,00 **

 The flying foxes, the free fall and the climbing wall are not accessible at these prices.

After putting on the climbing belt and following the climbing instruction you may climb three hours at most. Normally this duration is for everyone enough. Hand back the climbing belt to your climbing instructor after a maximum of three hours. The ticket office closes 2 hours before the outdoorpark closes. Dogs are not allowed at the park, except for assistance dogs. We also sell admission tickets to give away as gift vouchers. Wouldn't this be a nice idea? The opening hours vary because of weather- and season conditions. Please check out our website for the current opening hours. www.outdoorparkhoornsevaart.nl
